ROYAL

BAKING POWDER
Absolutely Pure.

This powder never rises. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kind, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, low weight, alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 100 Wall Street, New York.

What on Earth

Is the reason people will not, cannot, or do not see any difference in cheap nostrums put up by Cheap John houses or irresponsible parties at enormous profits, rather than take a medicine of world wide reputation and one that is giving universal satisfaction at equal price? No medicine in the world is giving such unparalleled satisfaction for purifying the blood as BEGG'S BLOOD PURIFIER & BLOOD MAKER, and every bottle that does not do its work, will cost you nothing. W. H. Chedie, Druggist.

How Can Parents

allow their children to cough and strain and cough and calmly say: "Oh! its only a little cold," and keep giving them cheap and dangerous medicines, until they are down with lung fever or consumption, when they can be so easily relieved by BEGG'S CHERRY COUGH SYRUP? It has no superior and few equals. W. H. Chedie, Druggist.

LOOKOUT FOR PAT REILLY.—Dick Little, advance agent for Reilly & Wood's New Big Show, has a right to be proud of the people whom he represents. Mr. Pat. Reilly is well known here. He is the man who sketched the Jeannette lost at the North Pole in 30 seconds. He also sketched pictures of John Sweeney, S. T. Swift and Oliver Roberts, of this city. His sketching is worth the price of admission alone. Those who miss seeing his show will miss a great treat, for he is the best and quickest delineator in the world. It is reported in places where they have played, that the whole show is the greatest ever seen on this Coast.

JOIN THE MUTUAL ENDOWMENT ASSOCIATION.—It presents six advantages combined in one system.

It pays to members while living, or to their legatees at death.

It pays weekly benefits to members in case of sickness or accident.

It pays endowments to totally disabled members at their option.

It pays advances for funeral expenses when desired.

It furnishes a safe deposit for savings, at more than double compound interest.

EXCITED SALOON KEEPER.

He goes After the Enterprise and Gazette.

CARSON CITY, May 10, '89.

EDITOR APPEAL:—Please find space in your paper for this, in answer to an editorial that appeared in the Enterprise this morning. It appears that the Reno Gazette, as well as the Enterprise, seem to have quite a discussion regarding the merits of the early closing law, at the expense of saloon keepers; a class that pay more taxes into the treasuries of the different counties than in any other line of business, even those that the above editors designated as dives. I claim that those editors are not posted, when they claim that most of the respectable saloons are in favor of the law and only dives are opposed to it. Mr. Editor, had the Enterprise or Reno Gazette asserted that all saloons that pay their bills and always have a few dollars ahead for any enterprise that may come up are opposed to this law, and only those that don't care whether their bills are ever paid, or those that are always afraid that their next door neighbor might make a dollar more than they do, are the ones that are in favor of the law. There isn't an honest or right thinking saloon man in this State but what is opposed to this law, and considers legislators who helped make this law, tools of the W. C. T. U., and not safe to trust with a member of the W. C. T. U., alone.

Yours, duly sober,
Saloon man.

To Whom it May Concern.

Advice to Mothers.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays the pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhea. Twenty five cents a bottle.

EDITOR OF THE APPEAL:—Please announce in the columns of your valuable paper that we are sole agents for St. Patrick's Pills, the most perfect cathartic and liver pills in the market. They not only physic, but cleanse the whole system; purify the blood and regulate the liver and bowels; they are vigorous but gentle in their action and can always be depended upon. For sale by G. C. Thaxter.

Not a fit, but an expression of delight. "About a week ago," says a Los Angeles, Cal., druggist, "a Chinaman came in with a lame shoulder. I sold him a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and guaranteed that it would cure him. He came in again last night, and as soon as he got inside the door, began to swing his arms over his head like an Indian club swinger. I thought the blamed fool had a fit, but he finally stopped long enough to say: 'Medicine velly fine, velly fine; aly same make me feel plenty good.'" Chamberlain's Pain Balm is without an equal for sprains, rheumatism, aches, pains or lame back. For sale by G. C. Thaxter.

Croup can always be prevented by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as soon as the child becomes hoarse. It is pleasant and safe to take and perfectly reliable. Price, 50 cents per bottle. For sale by G. C. Thaxter.

Professor Thompson, of the Dairy Restaurant, has captured the town with the coffee he sets out to his boarders. Billy Farrell at Sweeney's saloon is the President of the Restaurant's business.

THE HORSE WHIP.

An Enraged Woman Piles it Over a Stander.

Yesterday afternoon, just before the arrival of the evening train, the crowd about the depot was entertained by a lively horse-whipping scene in front of Circe's Exchange. A man named Parquette was standing on the sidewalk in front of the hotel, when Mrs. Calvert drove up in a buggy, and halting the horse in front of Parquette drew the long buggy whip from the socket, and springing lightly to the walk, stepped up in front of Parquette and began laying the whip over the man's head. She was a strong, well built woman, and she did not mince matters. The lash swished through the air at the rate of about two blows to a second, and every blow told. She finally took both hands to the work, and the man holding up his arm to ward the blows, kept crying out, "Hold on! What for?" etc.

She piled the whip until she was weary, and then jumping into the buggy again, remarked, "I'll teach you to slander me," and rode off, the crowd applauding.

Parquette is the man who was thrashed so badly July 4th, last year, for some trouble about a woman. Mrs. Calvert is a married lady, whose husband works in the Round House.

All that is necessary is for an application to be made conformatory with the rules and regulations which have been issued from his office.
